Vsebina:

Cilj predavanj je razložiti diskurzivno formacijo modernizma. Periodizacijska vsebina modernizma bo razložena v sečišču primerjalne literarne vede, lingvistike in filozofije. Kompleksnost modernističnih strategij, ki je zaobsežena v logiki obdobja, lahko svoja specifična določila veljavno razkrije šele prek delimitacije pojmov modernizem in modernost, modernizem in moderna ter modernizem in avantgarda. Zadrege z uveljavitvijo pojma modernizem v posameznih evropskih literaturah so posledica modernistične heterogenosti in planetarnosti. Predavanja bodo obravnavala krizo zavesti in logiko modernističnega obrata, zgodovinske avantgarde v Jugovzhodni Evropi ter povezave modernizma in avangardizmov z drugimi umetniškimi praksami. Slovensko gradivo bo vpeto v primerjalne kontekste.

Content (Syllabus outline):

The aim of the lectures is to provide a consistent explanation of the discursive formation of modernism. The historical concept of modernism is explained from the perspective of comparative literary studies, linguistics, and philosophy. The complexity of modernist strategies, which is included in the period logic, can validly reveal its specific stipulations only by delineating the concepts of modernism and the Moderne, and modernism and the avant-garde. Dilemmas regarding the establishment of the concept of modernism in individual European literatures result from modernist heterogeneity and planetarity. The lectures discuss the crisis of consciousness and the logic of the modernist shift, the historical avant-garde in southeast Europe, and the connections between modernism and avant-gardism on the one hand and other artistic practices on the other. Slovenian material is included in the comparative contexts.
